NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

A. OUR COMMITMENT TO YOUR PRIVACY
We are dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your health information. This Notice of Privacy Practices (Notice) is provided pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) as revised in the 2013 HIPAA Omnibus Rule. This Notice describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information to carry out treatment, payment, or health care operations, for administrative purposes, to evaluate the quality of care you receive, and for the purposes that we are permitted or required by law. This Notice describes your rights and our duties with respect to your protected health information.

“Protected health information” is information about you that may identify you and that relates to your past, present, or future physical or mental health/condition and related health care services. If you have any questions about this Notice, contact the University of Illinois Head of the Department of Speech and Hearing Science at 217-333-2230.

B. WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION IN THE FOLLOWING WAYS
We collect health information from you and store it in a file and on a computer. This is your medical record. The medical record is the property of the University of Illinois Department of Speech and Hearing Science, but the information in the medical record belongs to you. The following categories describe the different ways in which we may use and disclose your health information.

1. Treatment.
We may use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your treatment and any related services. We may disclose your protected health information to other third party providers involved in your health care. For example, your protected health information may be provided to a physician or other health care provider to whom you have been referred to ensure that the physician or other health care provider has the necessary information to diagnose or treat you.

2. Payment.
We may use and disclose your health information in order to bill to you, your insurance company, a government program, or third party payers. For example, we may contact your health insurer to certify that you are eligible for benefits (and for what range of benefits), and we may provide your insurer with details regarding your treatment to determine if your insurer will cover, or pay for, your treatment. We may disclose your health information to other health care providers and entities to assist in their billing and collection efforts.

3. Health Care Operations.
   We may use and disclose your protected health information for health care operation purposes. These uses and disclosures would be necessary to make sure that all of our patients receive quality care and for our operation and management purposes. For example, we may use your protected health information to review the quality of the treatment and services you receive and to evaluate the performance of our team members in caring for you. We also may disclose information to other audiologists or speech-language pathologists, physicians, technicians, graduate students, and other personnel for educational and learning purposes and for licensing and accreditation purposes.

4. Business Associates.
   At times it may be necessary for us to provide some personal health information to outside persons or organizations that assist us with our business activities. We may be required to disclose your clinical records to a business associate, such as a hearing aid manufacturer, accrediting agencies, consultants, auditors, and billing and collections companies. We require these business associates to appropriately safeguard the privacy of your information.

5. Treatment Communications.
   We may provide treatment communications concerning treatment alternative or other health related products or services. For communications for which we or a business associate may receive financial remuneration in exchange for asking the communication, we must obtain written authorization unless the communication is made face-to-face and/or involving promotional gifts of nominal value. If you do not wish to receive these communications you please submit a written request to the University of Illinois Head of the Department of Speech and Hearing Science.

6. Fundraising Activities.
   We may use or disclose your demographic information and dates of services provided to you, as necessary, in order to contact you for fundraising activities supported by us. You have the right to opt out of receiving fundraising communications. If you do not want to receive these materials, please submit a written request stating you would like your name removed from our mailing list.

7. Others Involved in Your Healthcare.
   Unless you object, we may disclose to a member of your family, a relative, a close friend or any other person you identify, your protected health information that directly relates to that person’s involvement in your health care. If you are unable to agree or object to such a disclosure, we may disclose such information as necessary if we determine that it is in your best interest based on our professional judgment. Also, for example, if you are brought into this office and are unable to communicate normally with your clinician for some reason, we may find it is in your best interest to give your hearing instrument and other supplies to the friend or relative who brought you in for treatment. We may also use and disclose protected health information to notify such persons of your location, general condition, or death. We also may coordinate with disaster relief agencies to make this type of notification. We also may use professional judgment and our experience with common practice to make reasonable decisions about your best interests in allowing a person to act on your behalf to pick up your hearing instruments, supplies, records, or other things that contain protected health information about you.
8. Required by Law.
We may use or disclose your protected health information to the extent that the use or disclosure is required by law. The use or disclosure will be made in compliance with the law and will be limited to the relevant requirements of the law. You will be notified, as required by law, of any such uses or disclosures.

9. Public Health.
We may disclose your protected health information for public health activities and purposes to a public health authority that is permitted by law to collect or receive the information. The disclosure will be made for the purpose of controlling disease, injury or disability. We may also disclose your protected health information, if directed by the public health authority, to a foreign government agency that is collaborating with the public health authority.

10. Communicable Diseases.
We may disclose your protected health information, if authorized by law, to a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease or may otherwise be at risk of contracting or spreading the disease or condition.

12. Health Oversight.
We may disclose your protected health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law, such as audits, investigations, and inspections. Oversight agencies seeking this information include government agencies that oversee the health care systems, government benefit programs, other government regulatory programs and civil rights laws.

13. Abuse or Neglect.
We may disclose your protected health information to a public health authority that is authorized by law to receive reports of abuse or neglect. In addition, we may disclose your protected health information if we believe that you have been a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence to the government entity or agency authorized to receive such information. In this case, the disclosure will be made consistent with the requirements of applicable federal and state laws.

14. Food and Drug Administration.
We may disclose your protected health information to a person or company required by the Food and Drug to report adverse events, product defects or problems, biologic product deviations, track products to enable product recalls, to make repairs or replacements, or to conduct post marketing surveillance, as required by law.

15. Legal Proceedings.
We may disclose your protected health information in the course of any judicial or administrative proceeding, in response to an order of a court or administrative tribunal (to the extent such disclosure is expressly authorized), and in certain conditions in response to a subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process.

16. Law Enforcement.
We may disclose your protected health information, so long as applicable legal requirements are met, for law enforcement purposes.

17. Coroners, Funeral Directors, and Organ Donation.
We may disclose your protected health information to a coroner or medical examiner for identification purposes, determining cause of death or for the coroner or medical examiner to perform other duties authorized by law. We may also disclose your protected health information to a funeral director, as authorized by law, in order to permit the funeral director to carry out its duties. We may disclose such information in reasonable anticipation of death. Protected health information may be used and disclosed for cadaveric organ, eye or tissue donation purposes.

18. Research.
We may disclose your protected health information to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your protected health information.

19. Serious Threat to Health or Safety.
Consistent with applicable federal and state laws, we may disclose your protected health information to prevent or lessen a serious threat to your health and safety or to the health and safety of another person or the public.

If you are involved with military, national security or intelligence activities or if you are in law enforcement custody, we may disclose your protected health information to authorized officials so they may carry out their legal duties under the law.

We may disclose your protected health information as authorized for workers’ compensation or other similar programs that provide benefits for a work-related illness.

22. For Data Breach Notification Purposes.
We may use or disclose your protected health information to provide legally required notices of unauthorized access to or disclosure of your health information.

23. Required Uses and Disclosures.
Under the law, we must make disclosures to you and when required by the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements of Section 164.500 et. Seq.

SPECIAL PROTECTIONS FOR HIV, ALCOHOL AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE, MENTAL HEALTH AND GENETIC INFORMATION.
Certain federal and state laws require special privacy protections that restrict the use and disclosure of certain health information, including HIV-related information, alcohol and substance abuse information, mental health information, and genetic information. Some parts of this Notice may not apply to these types of information.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION BASED UPON YOUR WRITTEN AUTHORIZATION.
The following uses and disclosures will be made only with your written authorization:
1. Uses and disclosures of protected health information for marketing purposes for which we or a business associate may receive remuneration; and
2. Disclosures that constitute a sale of protected health information.
Other uses and disclosures of your protected health information not described in this Notice will be made only with your written authorization, unless otherwise permitted or required by law. You may revoke this authorization, at any time, in writing, except to the extent that we have taken an action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization. Additionally, if a use or disclosure of protected health information described above in this Notice is prohibited or materially limited by other laws that apply to use, it is our intent to meet the requirements of the more stringent law.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION.
The following is a statement of your rights with respect to your protected health information and a brief description of how you may exercise these rights.

1. Right to be notified if there is Breach of Your Protected Health information
You have the right to be notified upon a breach of any of your unsecured protected health information.

2. Right to Inspect and Copy.
You may inspect and obtain a copy of your protected health information that is contained in your medical and billing records and any other records that we use for making decisions about you. To inspect and copy your medical information, you must submit a written request to the University of Illinois Head of the Department Speech and Hearing Science. If you request a copy of your information, we may charge you a reasonable fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other costs incurred by us in complying with your request. Under federal law, you may not inspect or copy the following records: psychotherapy notes; information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or use in, a civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding; and protected health information that is subject to law that prohibits access to protected health information. Depending on the circumstances, we may deny your request to inspect and/or copy your protected health information. A decision to deny access may be reviewable. Please contact the University of Illinois Head of the Department Speech and Hearing Science if you have questions about access to your medical record.

3. Right to Request Restrictions.
You may ask us not to use or disclose any part of your protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment or healthcare operations. You may also request that any part of your protected health information not be disclosed to family members or friends who may be involved in your care or for notification purposes as described in this Notice. To request a restriction on who may have access to your protected health information, you must submit a written request to the University of Illinois Head of the Department Speech and Hearing Science. Your request must state the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restriction to apply. We are not required to agree to a restriction that you may request, unless you are asking us to restrict the use and disclosure of your protected health information to a health plan for payment or health care operation purposes and such information you wish to restrict pertains solely to a health care item or service for which you have paid us “out-of-pocket” in full. If we believe it is in your best interest to permit the use and disclosure of your protected health information, your protected health information will not be restricted. If we do agree to the requested restriction, we may not use or disclose your protected health information in violation of that restriction unless it is needed to provide emergency treatment.

4. Right to Request Confidential Communication.
You have the right to request to receive confidential communications from us by alternative means or at an alternative location. We will accommodate reasonable requests. You must request this by submitting a written request to the University of Illinois Head of the Department Speech and Hearing Science.
5. Right to Request Amendment.
You may request an amendment of your protected health information contained in your medical and billing records and any other records that we use for making decisions about you, for as long as we maintain the protected health information. You must request for an amendment by submitting a written request to the University of Illinois Head of the Department Speech and Hearing Science, and provide the reason(s) that support your request. In certain cases, we may deny your request for an amendment. If we deny your request for an amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and we may prepare a rebuttal to your statement and will provide you with a copy of any such rebuttal.

6. Right to an Accounting of Disclosures.
You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures we have made, if any, of your protected health information. This right applies to disclosures for purposes other than treatment, payment or healthcare operations as described in the Notice. It excludes disclosures we may have made to you, for a resident directory, to family members or friends involved in your care, or for notification purposes. The right to receive this information is subject to certain exceptions, restrictions, and limitations. Additionally, limitations are different for electronic health records. You must request for an accounting of disclosures by submitting a written request to the University of Illinois Head of the Department Speech and Hearing Science, and provide the reason(s) that support your request.

7. Right to Obtain a Paper Copy of this Notice.
You have the right to receive a paper copy of this Notice even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. To obtain a paper copy of this Notice, you can contact the University of Illinois Head of the Department Speech and Hearing Science. You may also obtain a copy of this Notice online.

COMPLAINTS OR QUESTIONS.
If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with us or with the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. If you have a question about this Notice or wish to file a complaint with us, please contact the University of Illinois Head of the Department Speech and Hearing Science, 901 South Sixth Street, Champaign, IL 61820. All complaints must be submitted in writing. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE.
We reserve the right to change this Notice at any time. The new Notice will be effective for all health information we already have about you as well as any information we receive in the future. You can also obtain a revised Notice online or by contacting the University of Illinois Head of the Department Speech and Hearing Science.

This notice applies to uses and disclosure of your health information effective April 14, 2013. This notice was updated on November 29, 2006, November 20, 2012, and on July 16, 2013.
